vs.)	ORDER
)
JUDAS T. CRISMAN,)
Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the oral motion of the government and the defendant Judas T. Crisman (Crisman) for an extension of the discovery and pretrial motion deadline. The motion was made during the arraignment on the Indictment on February 27, 2015. Crisman acknowledged the additional time needed for his motion would be excluded under the calculations under the Speedy Trial Act. The oral motion was granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The motion for an extension of time to extend discovery and file pretrial motions is granted. Discovery shall be completed by March 13, 2015, and any pretrial motions shall be filed on or before April 10, 2015.

2. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., from February 27, 2015, to April 10, 2015, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 2nd day of March, 2015.
